

High School Championship Now Depends on Result of Tech-Western Game

Mark Cross
Belts,
50c to $2.

The Mode Says—

WITH all our immense variety of Straw Hat shapes we haven't one too many to properly serve our clientele. All the braids—Split, Sennit, Rough Straws, Rice Straws, Bankoks, Panamas, Leghorns—in all the many varying proportions—approved styles, all of them—in all grades from $2 to $20.

The Mode Special includes Split, Sennit—the new High-crown Narrow Brim Rough Straw..... $3.00
The Robert Heath (English) High-crown, Narrow Brim Rough Straw..... $4.00
Our Special Panama is a genuine Ecuador Hat..... $5.00

THE entire Second Floor is the home of Mode Clothes—takes the whole floor of both buildings—it's such a comprehensive stock of distinctive and popular styles—English models from Skipworth of London, English and Conservative cut of our own make. Think of it—we show FIFTY DIFFERENT STYLES—all exclusive—alone in the grades at $20.00 and $25.00

Eleventh & T Streets—

Manhattan
Shirts,
$1.50 to $6.

Hess Shoes Are Modeled on Style Lines

- That please the critical eye of the connoisseur of fashion.
- They are constructed on lasts that afford the most perfect comfort and ease.
- They are made from specially selected leathers, that give the utmost serviceability and wear.
- They are fitted to your feet in our own Hess stores by expert fitters, whose business it is to see that you get absolutely the right shoe for your foot.

Sixty Exclusive Styles in Hess Oxfords at $4 to $7

N. Hess' Sons, 931 Pa. Ave.

If you pick the right Shop you'll pick the right Clothes.

The Calvert Shop is convincing every day a widening circle of men of the great possibilities of Calvert Clothes—demonstrating that those features of fit and becomingness which you have never thought of as obtainable ready-for-wear are accurately provided here.

You are not getting the very best you can for your money until you wear Calvert Clothes. Exclusive—but rational styles—ours are.

$20.00 to $45.00

You'll see here the Straw Hat shapes and braids that have fashion's full indorsement—$3.00, $4.00 and $5.00—with Panamas from $6.00 to $20.00.

The Calvert Co.

Refinements of Dress.

F at Fourteenth.

TECH NOW HAS A CLEAN SLATE IN SCHOOL SERIES

Win Over Eastern Yesterday Will Cause Championship to Be Decided in Game With Western.

Amateur League Games

Scheduled for Today

Capital City League, North Capitol and 14th streets—Pumpkin Station vs. Navy Yard.
Columbia League, Columbia road and 14th street—Mount Pleasant vs. American Security.
Departmental—White Lot Elipso Interior vs. Agassiz.
East Washington, 13th and D streets northeast—First Presbyterian vs. Metropolitan.
Independence, North Capitol and W streets—Loeffler vs. Manhattan.
Marquette, 35th street and Wisconsin avenue—St. Stephen's vs. Bethesda.
Northern, Georgia avenue and Kenyon streets—Park vs. Anacostia.
Railroad, 5th street and Florida avenue northeast—Station vs. Adams.
Sunday School, 14th and A streets northeast—Nativity vs. Lincoln Avenue.
Treasury, White Lot Elipso—Curran vs. N. H. A.
Government, White Lot Elipso—War vs. Interior.

BY H. C. BYRD.

The victory secured by Tech over Eastern yesterday gives it a clean record of wins over the other schools with the exception of Western, which has accomplished the same thing. The championship will be decided next Tuesday, when Tech and Western meet.

Just as was predicted after Central was defeated by Western, the championship depends on the result of the meeting of Tech and Western. Last year these two teams fought it out in the last contest for the championship, and history has repeated itself as far as that part of it is concerned. Last spring Tech won; whether or not it will this season remains to be seen. Tuesday, when Tech and Western meet, there seems to be very little difference in the play put up by the two teams so far this season. Sometimes one team has made better showing against another and vice versa. There does not appear to be any appreciable difference between the two nines, and they should enter the contest on pretty even terms.

The scores made in the high school series by the two teams against the others are as follows: Western, 3; Central, 2; Tech, 1; Eastern, 1; Business, 8; Tech, 10; Business, 1; Western, 10; Eastern, 5; Tech, 3; Eastern, 0. These scores do not show much of a difference between the two nines. The last two contests played by Tech have been its defense, and the considerably more developed than it was in the first, and the majority of scores would lead one to believe that Tech has a little more offensive aggregate than Western, but when the two meet there is not apt to be much difference.

It is hard to tell what kind of a game may result when Tech and Western play. The contest may develop into one where one run will be the deciding factor, or it may be that both nines will score runs, almost at will, as was the case last spring. There is a possibility that one of the teams will run away with the game and win by a one-sided score, but such is not likely to be.

The interhigh school track meet will be held Saturday. There is no reason to believe other than that Central will make a clean sweep and win nearly everything. The Blue and White squad had matters as it wanted them at M. A. C. last Saturday, and it will not encounter as much opposition this week as it did then. In fact, it is probable that two-thirds of the athletes in competition will be Central men. Reuter, Blackstone, Hamilton, Van Dyne, Jones and Tibbets could win the meet Saturday without another Central man entered. These men form a team too good for the other schools combined.

Catholic University scored another easy win over the Villanova nine yesterday when it defeated the Pennsylvania team at Brookland by 8 to 5. There was no time during the contest when the Brooklanders were not in the lead, and no period when it appeared that they would not win. Ryan, who pitched for the local school, had things about as wanted them, while his team had little trouble getting runs for him. In the last inning it looked as though the Northern aggregation might even matters up when the bases were cleared by a three-base hit, but Ryan tightened up and cut short the rally.

Catholic University did not outpitch Villanova to any great extent yesterday, but the safeties were made more when they were needed. The Brooklanders made ten against Villanova's eight hits.

Zachary got three hits out of four times at bat, leading the Catholic University nine at bat.

The Southland Club is going along in pretty good shape in the Independence League. The team has been considerably strengthened and is playing a much superior article of ball to what it did last season in the post-season series.

There is not a single man playing on the Georgetown team now who held down a regular job on the nine which represented the school when Notre Dame won from it on its last appearance here. The team at that time was one of the strongest ever put on the field by the Blue and Gray school, and one wearing the colors now does not come very far below the standard.

Georgetown will play the last game in its schedule today, when it meets Notre Dame. The Hilltoppers are banking on evening up with the western team for the crushing defeat handed to them four years ago.

Georgetown should not have such a hard time with the Notre Dame nine after all, since that team was barely able to defeat Mount St. Mary's day before yesterday. Mount St. Mary's in any way compared with Georgetown, and on that basis it would seem that the Hilltoppers should win easily.

Johnson, for Eastern, pitched his best game of the season yesterday.

The Maryland Aggies and Gallaudet will play this afternoon at Kendall Green.

It is likely that White will do the pitching this afternoon for Georgetown, although Fieble may be sent in. Either of the two men should show well in the box.

One of the best things about Austin, the Technical High pitcher, is that he seems always to have control of the ball. There are few games in which the youngster gives more than two bases on balls, and if he gets in a hole, it is generally errors on the part of his teammates that is responsible for it. Austin, besides being a good pitcher, is also a hitter above the average. In yesterday's contest with Eastern he connected with the ball for three safeties out of four times at bat.

Dyer, at short for Eastern, hit the ball better than any of his teammates. He got two hits out of four trips to the plate, incidentally, it was the four errors made by Dyer that contributed largely to Tech's rungetting.

Austin of Tech, fielded his position in good style, demonstrating the fact that he is about as good a fielding pitcher as there is in the series. He had four assists and two put-outs yesterday without a slip-up.

NORTHERN LEAGUE.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.
W. L. Pct.
Waverly..... 2 1 0.667
Regatta..... 2 1 0.667
Andrews..... 1 1 0.500

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.
Waverly, 9; Herald, 6.

GAME TODAY.
Park vs. Andrews.

Waverly continued its winning streak yesterday, taking advantage of the nine misplays of the Herald club and winning a seesaw contest, 9 to 6.

Stanton's boys were blessed in more than one inning yesterday, as the Newspaper lads fell all over themselves trying to catch pop flies and take the throw. King, on second, and Bell, in left, made a couple of poor errors, which really cost the game.

Jack O'Brien pitched good ball, and deserved to win, but the weak fielding behind him was too much.

Doleman looked good on first for the Herald bunch, getting a couple of poor throws in great shape and smacking a homer and a single. "Prunty" Whitmarsh, in short, put up a neat game in the field.

Stanley pitched a good game for the winners, allowing but six hits, and was certainly almost perfect support at the critical moments.

Cap Jenkins, who is handling the indicator in this circuit, is sure having trouble with the catchers, as no less than six passed balls caught the "ump" on the shiny yesterday. Cap says he will have to go into retirement after the present season unless somebody erects a fence around his feet.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LEAGUE

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.
W. L. Pct.
Nativity..... 2 0 1.000
Sherwood..... 2 0 1.000
Lincoln..... 1 1 0.500

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.
Sherwood, 13; Anacostia, 0.

TODAY'S GAME.
Nativity vs. Lincoln Avenue.

Sherwood showed some of its last season's speed yesterday when it walloped Anacostia 13 to 0 in seven slow innings.

Reds Porter, the versatile stocky chap from Langdon, was the whole show yesterday, striking out eleven men and assisting materially in shutting out the across-the-river lads.

The leaders and the tail-enders will clash today. Some one wants to stop those new members of the league.

INDEPENDENCE LEAGUE.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.
W. L. Pct.
Loeffler..... 2 1 0.667
Manhattan..... 2 1 0.667
Southern..... 1 1 0.500

YESTERDAY'S RESULT.
Southern, 4; Aloystus, 3.

TODAY'S GAME.
Manhattan vs. Loeffler.

In a close and interesting game Southern handed Aloystus the short end of a 4-to-3 score yesterday.

The clubmen got away to a flying start, tallying twice in the first on base on balls, two fielders' choices and errors by Hunt and Carroll. They added one more in the sixth, when Babbington walked, stole second and scored on Heinrich's wild throw to third. Up to this time they had made one hit only, a single by O'Reilly in the fifth, which did not count in the scoring.

The Grays managed to put one across in the second, Deschard got a hit, and when Carr walked and scored on Babbington's overthrow of the keyhole sack. They won the game in the next stanza, scoring three runs on single by Shaver and Deschard, a double by Carroll and Heinrich's long triple.

Birch pitched a masterly game for Southern, allowing but one hit, passing two and fanning seven. With better support he would have had a shutout to his credit, as not one of the three runs made by Aloystus was earned. White touched up more freely than his opponent, Thompson kept the hits scattered and was especially effective with men on bases.

Loeffler and Manhattan clash today in what promises to be an exciting battle. These teams are now tied for first place in the pennant race, and this fact should be an incentive to them to put forth their best efforts. Loeffler will undoubtedly be somewhat handicapped by the loss of Al Fisher, its sterling first baseman, who is playing with the local team in the United States League.

R. E. Y. M. C. A. LEAGUE.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.
W. L. Pct.
Car Dept..... 2 1 0.667
Adams Exp..... 2 1 0.667
Southern..... 1 1 0.500

Yesterday's results—Adams, 12; Car Department, 11.

Today's game—Union Station vs. Adams' Express.

The league race assumed a more tightened aspect yesterday, when in an exciting game Adams Express trimmed the Car Department aggregation, 12 to 11. While the game was not one of such quality as Southern and Adams put up last week, it kept the largest crowd of the season interested, and the rooting was noisy.

Spence Hanney started for Adams, but in the final round Car Department treated him roughly, and Bryant was called in from right field and checked the speed boys.

Adams hammered out sixteen hits off Callow, and these, mixed with error, doubled the runner at first.

With the pitcher holding the ball in his hand Rolley, in the ninth inning, stole both second and third.

War seemed to have an off day in the field, a total of eight errors being committed.

War retired his opponents with a lightning double play.

Watson, War's little second sacker, made a great stop in the seventh, when he pulled a fast one out of the grass and got his man at first by three feet.

A second double play was pulled off by the losers in the seventh stanza, when Nelson pulled one out of the air and doubled the runner at first.

Adams hammered out sixteen hits off Callow, and these, mixed with error, doubled the runner at first.

With the pitcher holding the ball in his hand Rolley, in the ninth inning, stole both second and third.

War seemed to have an off day in the field, a total of eight errors being committed.

War retired his opponents with a lightning double play.

Watson, War's little second sacker, made a great stop in the seventh, when he pulled a fast one out of the grass and got his man at first by three feet.

A second double play was pulled off by the losers in the seventh stanza, when Nelson pulled one out of the air and doubled the runner at first.

Adams hammered out sixteen hits off Callow, and these, mixed with error, doubled the runner at first.

With the pitcher holding the ball in his hand Rolley, in the ninth inning, stole both second and third.

War seemed to have an off day in the field, a total of eight errors being committed.

War retired his opponents with a lightning double play.

Watson, War's little second sacker, made a great stop in the seventh, when he pulled a fast one out of the grass and got his man at first by three feet.

A second double play was pulled off by the losers in the seventh stanza, when Nelson pulled one out of the air and doubled the runner at first.

Adams hammered out sixteen hits off Callow, and these, mixed with error, doubled the runner at first.

With the pitcher holding the ball in his hand Rolley, in the ninth inning, stole both second and third.

War seemed to have an off day in the field, a total of eight errors being committed.

War retired his opponents with a lightning double play.

Watson, War's little second sacker, made a great stop in the seventh, when he pulled a fast one out of the grass and got his man at first by three feet.

A second double play was pulled off by the losers in the seventh stanza, when Nelson pulled one out of the air and doubled the runner at first.

Adams hammered out sixteen hits off Callow, and these, mixed with error, doubled the runner at first.

With the pitcher holding the ball in his hand Rolley, in the ninth inning, stole both second and third.

War seemed to have an off day in the field, a total of eight errors being committed.

War retired his opponents with a lightning double play.

Watson, War's little second sacker, made a great stop in the seventh, when he pulled a fast one out of the grass and got his man at first by three feet.

A second double play was pulled off by the losers in the seventh stanza, when Nelson pulled one out of the air and doubled the runner at first.

Adams hammered out sixteen hits off Callow, and these, mixed with error, doubled the runner at first.

With the pitcher holding the ball in his hand Rolley, in the ninth inning, stole both second and third.

War seemed to have an off day in the field, a total of eight errors being committed.

War retired his opponents with a lightning double play.

Watson, War's little second sacker, made a great stop in the seventh, when he pulled a fast one out of the grass and got his man at first by three feet.

A second double play was pulled off by the losers in the seventh stanza, when Nelson pulled one out of the air and doubled the runner at first.

Adams hammered out sixteen hits off Callow, and these, mixed with error, doubled the runner at first.

With the pitcher holding the ball in his hand Rolley, in the ninth inning, stole both second and third.

War seemed to have an off day in the field, a total of eight errors being committed.

War retired his opponents with a lightning double play.

Watson, War's little second sacker, made a great stop in the seventh, when he pulled a fast one out of the grass and got his man at first by three feet.

A second double play was pulled off by the losers in the seventh stanza, when Nelson pulled one out of the air and doubled the runner at first.

Adams hammered out sixteen hits off Callow, and these, mixed with error, doubled the runner at first.

With the pitcher holding the ball in his hand Rolley, in the ninth inning, stole both second and third.

War seemed to have an off day in the field, a total of eight errors being committed.

War retired his opponents with a lightning double play.

Watson, War's little second sacker, made a great stop in the seventh, when he pulled a fast one out of the grass and got his man at first by three feet.

A second double play was pulled off by the losers in the seventh stanza, when Nelson pulled one out of the air and doubled the runner at first.

Adams hammered out sixteen hits off Callow, and these, mixed with error, doubled the runner at first.

With the pitcher holding the ball in his hand Rolley, in the ninth inning, stole both second and third.

War seemed to have an off day in the field, a total of eight errors being committed.

War retired his opponents with a lightning double play.

EISEMAN'S CORNER—7th and E Streets

Liberal Value—Satisfactory Service—Guaranteed Goods at Eiseman's.

True Blue Serge Suits

For Men and Young Men—Regular $13.50
$18.50 Value....

—A Serge Suit value that can't be bettered anywhere else in town. True Blue Serge holds its color and wears splendidly. The various models, ranging from the conservative to the extreme English cut, anticipate the requirements of every man and young man. Instead of $18.50 you can get a True Blue Serge Suit here for $13.50.

FANCY SUITS

$20 and $22.50 Values,

$15.00

A big line of these swell Suits, embracing all the smartest English-cut models as well as the more conservative styles. In the newest blue, gray, brown, tan and other fancy fabrics. Unusual value at $15.00.

EISEMAN & CO. Outfitters to 7th & E Sts.
Men and Boys

War retired his opponents with a lightning double play.

Watson, War's little second sacker, made a great stop in the seventh, when he pulled a fast one out of the grass and got his man at first by three feet.

A second double play was pulled off by the losers in the seventh stanza, when Nelson pulled one out of the air and doubled the runner at first.

Adams hammered out sixteen hits off Callow, and these, mixed with error, doubled the runner at first.

With the pitcher holding the ball in his hand Rolley, in the ninth inning, stole both second and third.

War seemed to have an off day in the field, a total of eight errors being committed.

War retired his opponents with a lightning double play.

Watson, War's little second sacker, made a great stop in the seventh, when he pulled a fast one out of the grass and got his man at first by three feet.

A second double play was pulled off by the losers in the seventh stanza, when Nelson pulled one out of the air and doubled the runner at first.

Adams hammered out sixteen hits off Callow, and these, mixed with error, doubled the runner at first.

With the pitcher holding the ball in his hand Rolley, in the ninth inning, stole both second and third.

War seemed to have an off day in the field, a total of eight errors being committed.

War retired his opponents with a lightning double play.

Watson, War's little second sacker, made a great stop in the seventh, when he pulled a fast one out of the grass and got his man at first by three feet.

A second double play was pulled off by the losers in the seventh stanza, when Nelson pulled one out of the air and doubled the runner at first.

Adams hammered out sixteen hits off Callow, and these, mixed with error, doubled the runner at first.

With the pitcher holding the ball in his hand Rolley, in the ninth inning, stole both second and third.

War seemed to have an off day in the field, a total of eight errors being committed.

War retired his opponents with a lightning double play.

Watson, War's little second sacker, made a great stop in the seventh, when he pulled a fast one out of the grass and got his man at first by three feet.

A second double play was pulled off by the losers in the seventh stanza, when Nelson pulled one out of the air and doubled the runner at first.

Adams hammered out sixteen hits off Callow, and these, mixed with error, doubled the runner at first.

With the pitcher holding the ball in his hand Rolley, in the ninth inning, stole both second and third.

War seemed to have an off day in the field, a total of eight errors being committed.

War retired his opponents with a lightning double play.

Watson, War's little second sacker, made a great stop in the seventh, when he pulled a fast one out of the grass and got his man at first by three feet.

A second double play was pulled off by the losers in the seventh stanza, when Nelson pulled one out of the air and doubled the runner at first.

Adams hammered out sixteen hits off Callow, and these, mixed with error, doubled the runner at first.

With the pitcher holding the ball in his hand Rolley, in the ninth inning, stole both second and third.

War retired his opponents with a lightning double play.

Watson, War's little second sacker, made a great stop in the seventh, when he pulled a fast one out of the grass and got his man at first by three feet.

A second double play was pulled off by the losers in the seventh stanza, when Nelson pulled one out of the air and doubled the runner at first.

Adams hammered out sixteen hits off Callow, and these, mixed with error, doubled the runner at first.

With the pitcher holding the ball in his hand Rolley, in the ninth inning, stole both second and third.

War seemed to have an off day in the field, a total of eight errors being committed.

War retired his opponents with a lightning double play.

Watson, War's little second sacker, made a great stop in the seventh, when he pulled a fast one out of the grass and got his man at first by three feet.

A second double play was pulled off by the losers in the seventh stanza, when Nelson pulled one out of the air and doubled the runner at first.

Adams hammered out sixteen hits off Callow, and these, mixed with error, doubled the runner at first.

With the pitcher holding the ball in his